Online MBA.
Do You Have What It Takes?

With three starts per year—in fall, spring and summer—the William & Mary Online MBA program accepts applications on a rolling basis, allowing students to submit materials in advance for their intended start.

In order to apply to the program, students must submit the following materials:

- A completed online application
- Official transcripts from all universities attended, even if a degree was not earned
- 2 essays
- 2 letters of professional recommendation
- A resume/CV showing a minimum of 2 years of work experience
- $100 application fee
- TOEFL, IELTS or PTE scores (for international applicants)

If you qualify for the next step in the admissions process, you will be invited to participate in a personal admissions interview, conducted via video conference or over the phone.

Submit a Stronger Application

If you’ve reviewed the admissions requirements and find yourself a little worried over some of the components, you’re in luck: We at William & Mary have prepared several valuable resources to help you craft the strongest admissions application possible.

Ready to Apply?

1. Request your official transcripts from all college-level institutions attended. Students must have completed a bachelor’s degree with a regionally accredited university.
2. Complete the online application, and submit all admissions requirements.
3. Schedule your video conference or phone interview with admissions.
4. Pay the $100 application fee (unless you are approved for a fee waiver).
