Join the Renaissance of Business

Thinker, Revolutionary Leader.

Your Revolution Begins Here.

Recognized as The Princeton Review's No. 5 Best Business School

The Raymond A. Mason School of Business at William & Mary has some of the best faculty in the industry.

The power of relationships is at the heart of a Raymond A. Mason School of Business education. We insist on developing relationships between students and faculty—as well as between students and industry experts. Additionally, we create opportunities for our students to network and collaborate outside of the classroom.

The William & Mary community works hand in hand with our faculty and staff, providing the tools and resources our students need to achieve success.

Networking in an Online Program

By donning the W&M green, gold and white regalia, our online ceremony held in May.

Online students to join us on campus for the Commencement William & Mary community, which is why we encourage all of our online students.

Although your classes are online, you're still a vital part of the students and the university's rich traditions on campus—even for students close the gap between the cost of their out-of-state student who also qualifies 100% through the GI Bill. You may be eligible for the Yellow Ribbon program if you're an out-of-state student who also qualifies 100% through the GI Bill with the Yellow Ribbon. You may be a Yellow Ribbon School.

Do You Have What It Takes?

With three starts per year—in fall, spring and summer—the William & Mary Online MBA program accepts applications on a rolling basis, allowing students to submit materials in advance for their intended start.

In order to apply to the program, students must submit the following materials:

- $100 application fee; the fee may be waived for applications submitted by the priority deadline, active-duty military and veterans, W&M alumni, attendees of informational webinars, and at the discretion of the Admissions Office. Contact an Admissions Advisor to discuss whether you qualify for a fee waiver.
- Official academic transcripts from all institutions where you have received a conferred bachelor or graduate degree. Official transcripts must be sent directly from your institution. Unofficial transcripts are accepted as part of the application and official transcripts are due before classes begin.
- Two essays
- Two letters of reference
- A resume/CV showing a minimum of two years of work experience
- TOEFL, IELTS or PTE scores (for international applicants)

Qualified applicants who have submitted and completed their application will be invited to schedule a personal admission interview. Interviews can be conducted by video conference, telephone, or on campus.

Submit a Stronger Application

If you've reviewed the admissions requirements and find yourself a little worried over some of the components, you're in luck: We at William & Mary have prepared several valuable resources to help you craft the strongest admissions application possible.

Ready to Apply?

1. Request your official transcripts from all institutions where you have received a conferred bachelor or graduate degree.
2. Pay the $100 application fee (unless you are approved for a fee waiver).
3. Complete the online application, and submit all admissions requirements.
4. Schedule your video or phone interview with admissions, when invited.
